History Of T & T.V.Sarvajanik High School

On 7th June 1888, Shri Jaykishandas Ahluwalia, Shri Chunilal Ghelabhai shah, Shri Dahyabhai Bardolia and Shri Bhaidas Ichharam Reshamwala established a school opposite to government school no - 6 in Gopipura. They started the school in the name of ' The English School ' with only 11 students which was popularly known as 'Dhingli School'. inspite of adverse and odd situations, the aforesaid four great education lovers with their personal debts continued to run the school.

After 18 years of establishment of the school the Department of the Education decide to give Rs. 1500/- as government grant to the school, now the name of the school was changed to ' The Sarvajanik School '.

It is interesting to note that Shah's wish was soon fulfilled, when largely owing to his own effort the Sarvajanik Education Society, as we shall see secured over Rs. 2,26,000 from the Tapidas and Tulsidas Varajdas Trust Fund and the school was named the Tapidas and Tulsidas Varajdas Sarvajanik High School.

A well known name in the field of education, T.&T.V. Sarvajanik High School, Nanpura, Surat was established in June 1888. Our Semi-Government Granted School, managed by well known education trust of Surat city "Sarvajanik Education Society", conducted 9 schools and 14 colleges.

The School celebrated Daimond Jubilee in the year 1948 and School's old building was given magnificent and splendid appearance with an impressive main entrance which was later known as "Dakshina Bhavan" with all financial help of X-students' of the School with all other primary facilities and enormous school ground which increased the school's pride & reputation. Later SES constructed a big hall in the memory of Shri Tribhuvandas Malvi known as "Malvi Hall " with the clock tower. Seth Shri Gangaram Bhartiya gave donation for constructing a block consisting of six classrooms in memory his nephew Shri Natvarlal Bhartiya, known as "Bhartiya Block".

For School's continuous and complete progress as well as bright growth of the school the public society built the new building on the land donated. After 129 years T. & T.V. Sarvajanik. High School stands sturdy to educate Surat city's children with lots of hard work and struggle of well qualified Principal's ,Supervisor's Teacher's and student's working shoulder to shoulder in all educational and co-curricular activites, sports, inter and intra school competitions, Science

Fair, competitive events hosted by school etc., are always encourage by Sarvajanik Educationa Society's respected Dignitaries

"Science Club " was established 1956 under guidance and supervision of well experienced and qualified science teacher's Dr. C.Z. Shah Sir, R.R. Bhatt Sir, B.U. Dixit sir encouraged by principal Shri K.T Seth and under their guidance and supervision many science fair and other activities were organized on state and national level and achieved first position in scientific project on "Apollo-11", "Viking", "lyuna khod" based on space administration and their first position achievement was respected and honored by President as well as Prime minister of our country.
